FUND OBJECTIVE

To achieve long-term capital appreciation by implementing an alpha-driven investment process focusing on large-cap U.S. companies experiencing significant corporate insider buying.

PRIMARY GOALS & KEY REASONS TO INVEST

Insider-Driven: The Fund only invests in companies where corporate insiders (CEO, CFO, directors, etc.) are purchasing their own company stock on the open market. We believe corporate insiders understand their own firm better than any outsider possibly could.

Potential Large-Cap Core Allocation: While we implement an alpha-driven investment approach by only investing in companies that insiders are purchasing, we focus on the largest, most well known U.S. companies.

Disciplined Strategy: We use a proprietary, quantitative model to rank stocks based on insider activity. A qualitative review is performed on all stocks that meet our quantitative criteria.

INVESTMENT STRATEGY

The Fund uses public information that is filed with the Securities and Exchange Commission ("SEC") on corporate insider and large shareholder buying and selling activity for its investment decisions. Our research and quantitative back-testing of insider trading data over long periods of time has resulted in the development of a proprietary method of analyzing activity that we believe can provide long-term capital appreciation. The underlying thesis is that corporate insiders know more about the prospects of the company than anybody else. The Fund emphasizes U.S. companies with market capitalizations of at least $10 billion.

The Catalyst Insider Buying Fund seeks to offer investors an opportunity to invest in large capitalization U.S. companies that are experiencing significant insider buying.

Investing in the Fund carries certain risks. The value of the Fund may decrease in response to the activities and financial prospects of an individual security in the Fund's portfolio. The performance of the Fund may be subject to substantial short term changes. To the extent the Fund invests in the stocks of smaller-sized companies, the Fund may be subject to additional risks, including the risk that earnings and prospects of these companies are more volatile than larger companies. Smaller-sized companies may experience higher failure rates than larger companies and normally have lower trading volume than larger companies. These factors may affect the value of your investment.
